

The GRI Materiality Disclosures Service organizational mark is the formal confirmation that the report of a particular organization has undergone and successfully completed the GRI Materiality Disclosures Service in a particular month and year.